

SILVERLAKE MENNONITE CAMP

50TH ANNIVERSARY

SONGBOOK

1 CORINTHIANS 13 - Source Unknown

◎1

1. Am G
If I have the eloquence of men and angels too,
Am G
But have no love O Lord, then what shall I do?
Dm Am
If I have prophetic powers and understand all things,
Dm Am Dm Em Am
But have no love O Lord, I am nothing, O . . . nothing.

2. If I have all faith so as to move the mountains high,
But have no love O Lord, then who am I?
And if I sacrifice my body to be burned,
But have not love in me, what have I earned? O nothing.

3. Love has no boast nor does it harbour foolish pride.
Love is not jealous or resentful inside.
Love is not arrogant or rude in any way.
Love won't insist upon its own way. O love.

4. As for prophecy and knowledge, they will all cease.
Love alone remains and gives us hope and peace.
And if we accept the love of Christ, God's only Son,
We find we too can love as Christ has done, as Christ has done.

G C

A DISCIPLE NAMED PETER – Gale Eneberg

③

1. A disciple named Peter once walked on the water
 D Bm G A
 From a ship on a dark stormy night.
 D Bm Em A
 He walked toward the Master on top of the water
 D G A D
 But he started to sink and he cried out in fright.
 D F#m G A
 "Oh Lord save me!" he cried out in fright,
 D G A D
 For he started to sink on that dark stormy night.

2. Then the hand of the Master saved him from the water
 Who had feared both the wind and the waves.
 And the Lord said to Peter on top of the water,
 "Oh why did you doubt? You have so little faith.
 You will sink if you give into doubt,
 But you'll stay up on top when your faith wins out."

3. To walk on the water, to walk and not falter,
 There is one certain thing you must do.
 Keep your eyes on the Master and not on the water,
 Don't look at the storm or you'll start to fall through.
 Walk in faith and you will not go down,
 But if you should falter he won't let you drown.

4. Now like the disciple we find in the Bible
 You can do the impossible thing.
 But if you should doubt, you'll never find out
 All the wonderful miracles faith can bring.
 You can do the impossible thing
 And see all the miracles faith will bring!

His journey's end was quite abrupt, a fish came by and swallowed him up.
He spent three dark and dreary days inside the whale.

LORD OF THE DANCE – Sydney Carter

C Am C Am
 1. I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
     F                   G7
 And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
     C Am C Am
 And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth,
     F G F C
 At Bethlehem I had my birth.

CHORUS
 C Am C Am
 Dance, then, wherever you may be,
 C Am F G
 I am the Lord of the Dance, said he,
 C F C Am
 And I'll lead you all wherever you may be,
     F G C F C
 And I'll lead you all in the dance said he.

2. I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee
 But they would not dance and they wouldn't follow me.
 I danced for the fishermen, for James and John,
 They came with me and the dance went on

3. I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame.
 The holy people said it was a shame.
 They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high,
 And they left me there on the cross to die.

4. I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black,
 It's hard to dance with the devil on your back.
 They buried my body and they thought I'd gone,
 But I am the dance and I still go on.

5. They cut me down and I leapt up high.
 I am the life that'll never, never die,
 I'll live in you if you'll live in me,
 I am the Lord of the Dance said he.

CHORUS
D G A D
Spirit, Spirit of gentleness,
Bm E A
Blow through the wilderness calling and free.
D G A D Bm
Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, stir me from placidness,
G A D G D
Wind, wind on the sea.

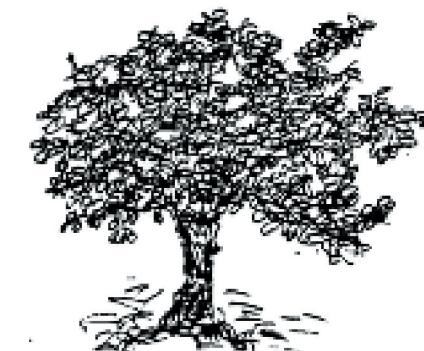

1. D G A G D
You moved on the waters, you called to the deep,
Bm E A
Then you coaxed up the mountains from the valleys of sleep.
D G A G D
And over the eons you called to each thing,
Bm G A D G D A
Wake from your slumbers and rise on your wings.

2. You swept through the desert, you stung with the sand,
And you goaded your people with a law and a land.
And when they were blinded with their idols and lies,
Then you spoke through your prophets to open their eyes.

3. You sang in a stable, you cried from a hill,
Then you whispered in silence when the whole world was still.
And down in the city you called once again
When you blew through your people on the rush of the wind.

4. You call from tomorrow, you break ancient schemes,
From the bondage of sorrow the captives dream dreams.
Our women see visions, our men clear their eyes,
With bold new decisions your people arise.

The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof

F F#dim

From the waters beneath to the heaven's above,

C E A D7 G7 C A

So take, take, take off your shoes, you're standing on my holy ground,

D7 G7 C

You're standing on my holy ground.

1. On the eighth day of creation, well, the Lord looked around

C

At the power plants and freeways and the trash on the ground,

D

Plantations growing rubber where the grain should be high,

G

G7

You couldn't see the sun for all the smog in the sky.

A

Well, kids, you really filled the earth and then you subdued it,

D7

G7

But there's nothing in my book that says you've got to pollute it, So...

42

2. You've heated up my rivers with your plants and your mills,

You're killing off my oceans with your wastes and your spills,

You're fishing like there'll always be an endless supply,

And fighting one another for what's left to divide.

You didn't want advice when I first gave you dominion,

But maybe now it's time to get a second opinion, So...

3. I dig your scientific minds but use them with care,

You're breaking down my ozone layer up in the air,

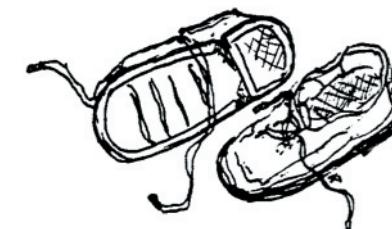

Your hyped-up farming's turning southern soil into stone,

And some are eating meat while some don't even get bones.

I told you to be fruitful and you sure multiplied,

But the rich took all the land and never learned to divide, So...

And shall say unto him, "Father, I have sinned

Against heaven and before thee,

And laid them out before me,

And sang to God thanksgiving that his son had come home.

O SILVER LAKE

Text: Unknown, Tune: The Ash Grove (trad.)

O Silver Lake how graceful your tall birch trees bending,
 The wind through their branches is music to me.
 The gleam of the sunlight that flashes on paddles
 As swiftly we glide over lake and through stream.
 The laugh of the loon and the wail of the whippoorwill,
 Memories that stay with us many a year.
 Our long journey's ended, our homeward way wended,
 With joyful hearts singing to you Silver Lake.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Compiling a 50th anniversary songbook was an exciting and challenging project! We started with a list of well over 300 hundred songs and whittled it down to the final 95. We think they reflect the history, present, and future of Silver Lake Mennonite Camp. We've also included lists of some favourite graces, hymns, and silly songs.

In addition to including the lyrics and guitar chords, we wanted friends and members of the Silver Lake community to be able to learn 100% of the songs in this songbook. So, we included a learning CD, with the verse and chorus of each song. The recordings are drawn from Silver Lake recordings from 1990-2006 with additional songs recorded in studio.

Special thanks to:

Dave Erb, Director, and the SLMC Board, who strongly encouraged and supported the development of this project.

All the campers, staff, parents, and friends of Silver Lake who have nurtured and continued a strong musical tradition at camp.

All the artists/composers/arrangers who wrote/arranged the songs we love to sing at camp! (With special thanks to those artists who donated the use of their songs in this project.)

Jeff Enns was commisioned to write two songs for the 50th anniversary that we are pleased to include. We hope these new songs continue to celebrate the Silver Lake Mennonite Camp community that continues to gathers in praise and wonder of Jesus in our midst.
